MASSACHUSETTS—Presidential.

Full returns have been received from the whole of this State, corrected the town of Gloucester, giving Governor GARDNER'S majority in 56,112. Gov. GARDNER'S vote falls very far behind that of Col. FREMONT. The Legislature is largely Republican—the Senate wholly so, and the House 209 to 91. The Republican majority on joint ballot is 231, and Hon. CHARLES SUMNER will be re-elected U. S. Senator.

The following is the vote in the State, as compared with that of the Presidential election of 1852:

Counties.	1856. Fremont.	Buchanan.	Fillmore.	1852. Scott.	Pierce.
Barnstable	2636	588	445	1378	693
Berkshire	4936	2443	377	3579	2973

Totals	104,765	37,872	19,592	52,656*	44,059

*Hale, Free Soil, received 28,022.

The Legislature is divided as follows:

	Senate.	House.
Fremont	40	226
Fillmore	0	9
Buchanan	0	6

Mr. BUCKINGHAM'S official majority is 69.

The Gubernatorial vote is as follows:

	Gard'r. Fremont.	Bench. Buch'n.	Gordon. Fillm'r.	Bell. Sc't	Scat. H.
Suffolk	6467	5705	5731	141	62

Gardner over Bench.....42,260
Gardner over Gordon.....68,529
Fremont over Gardner.....27,213

It will be observed that the "scattering" vote is unusually large. This is owing to the personal unpopularity of Gov. GARDNER, who falls far behind FREMONT.

Interesting Forecast and Gleanings of Coming Events

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION—THE CABINET—APPOINTMENTS—THE FOREIGN POLICY—THE OREGON TREATY NOT TO BE ABANDONED, &c.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 7.

The dispersion of the fog which has covered the political atmosphere during the last few days, enables us to see, at length, the true result of the late election. The astounding majorities for FREMONT in the States and, excepting Indiana, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, all the non-slaveholding States, demonstrated the spirit with which the enlightened part of the country has gone into the contest for Free Soil, and augurs well for the future interests of the country. Neither are our sagest and most experienced leaders inclined to regard the election of BUCHANAN as a calamity. The Democrats are sure of such a large working majority in both Houses of the next Congress, that the attempts of an opposition Executive to carry out the principles of his party would, undoubtedly, have been unsuccessful, and the inactivity to which he would have been condemned would have rendered his position beyond all measure galling and mortifying.

Much speculation exists with regard to the probable policy of the next Administration, and the formation of the next Cabinet. I have had conversations with several of the most prominent of the Democratic leaders here, and they laugh to scorn the absurd manner in which one of your unreliable papers has already assigned the different seats in the next Cabinet to individuals who are probably the very last that Mr. BUCHANAN, with his prudent and cautious character, would permit to take part in his councils. Of course, as yet, everything that can be said on this point is but surmise; but Mr. BUCHANAN is known to have repeatedly said, since his nomination: "I have not and shall not come to any decision, in case of my election, with regard to any place within the gift of the Government. I do not know, from the Secretary of State down to the lowest messenger in any Custom House, whom I should decide upon, nor do any friends know, nor have I ever consulted with any one upon this subject, nor has any one ever dared to make an application to me respecting this matter." This is pretty decided: it is nevertheless not difficult to imagine that Mr. JOHN SLIDELL,—Mr. BUCHANAN'S most intimate friend for over ten years,—may probably have whatever post he cares to assume the responsibility of. Hon. Mr. TOUCEY, of Connecticut, is also considered to have large claims upon the party, as also Senator RUSK of Texas, and Mr. COBB, of Georgia. As for DICKINSON, he will be allowed to entertain the same anxious, futile hopes which he has so long and so deservedly fed upon. It would be easy to add a score more of names, but I advise you to place no reliance whatever, for some time to come, on any of the "absolutely certain" announcements you will soon receive from many quarters.

The same will apply to your City; where, although the positions of Mr. COCHRANE, member elect to Congress, and Collector REDFIELD, who will of course retire from his post, must be assigned to other men, no course of action has been decided on. The number of candidates for the post of Collector, whose names I have heard as sure to be appointed, (!) is over thirty!! There are not fewer applicants for the Surveyorship.

Mark my words upon one point. The policy of Mr. BUCHANAN'S Administration will be a very different one from what has generally been supposed, both by his friends and enemies. Some of the former will be more disappointed than the latter. It is already known, both from his own private declarations and those of his most confidential associates, that his Government will be an eminently conservative one, and in perfect accordance with his cautious disposition. There is not a politician at Washington who looks for such measures as might be supposed to emanate from the signer of the Ostend Manifesto, and in proportion to the greater vigor and determination of his character will be the energy with which filibustering schemes and plans for embroiling the country with other powers will be checked.

If Kansas decides upon entering the Union as a Slave State, and Congress shall act favorably upon such a proposition, Mr. BUCHANAN will not veto the bill. On this point he is pledged to carry out the principles of the Kansas-Nebraska law; but a Southern Senator told me yesterday that he looked for no active interposition in favor of Slavery from the next Executive. On this, as well as upon many other points, it is the favorite refrain of Democrats, that the "grand refutation of all that has been said against the Cincinnati platform, and their Presidential candidate, will be the historical one contained in the administration of the Federal Government, from 1857 till 1861." This is said to be, originally, a saying of Mr. BUCHANAN'S. We shall see. Your valuable paper will of course "look on and see fair play," prepared to praise where praise is due, as it would have censured under a Fremont Government, if condemnation had been required.

I shall have more to say soon. P. H.

Contradictory Dispatches from Illinois—Tennessee Conceded to Buchanan—Gossip re Fremont.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

Special Dispatch to the New-York Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 7.

A dispatch received to-day, purporting to be from Senator DOUGLAS, claims Illinois for BUCHANAN by eight thousand majority; also five Democratic Congressmen. The Governor is not claimed.

There is much excitement here in consequence, as certain sporting men are still betting odds that FREMONT has carried Illinois. The dispatch is suspected to be a forgery. The Intelligencer has nothing contradicting WISEWOMAN'S dispatch.

Although little decisive has been heard from Tennessee, all parties concede it to BUCHANAN.

It is reported that Mr. CRITTENDEN'S nomination as Consul to Havana will be refused by the Government of Nine-Grenada, but nothing official to that effect has been received here.

Arrival of Major Bent Pacific Mails in Boston, with His Bucket of Apples.

BOSTON, Friday, Nov. 7.

Major BENT, Fillmore candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, arrived in the city this afternoon with his wheel-barrow and barrel of apples—which he had wheeled all the way from West Roxbury, a distance of thirty-six miles, in two and a half days. The job was in fulfillment of a bet with Col. BURBANK, the Fremont State Senator elect, that FILLMORE would get more votes in Massachusetts than FREMONT.

The Major, wheeling his apples, was escorted up State-street about 2 o'clock, by the Fillmore Clubs of Boston and Charlestown, a military company and a mounted cavalcade of citizens. The novelty of the performance collected many thousands of the people, and the Major was greeted with tremendous and continuous applause on all sides. He delivered the apples to Col. BURBANK on the steps of the Tremont House, when both gentlemen delivered congratulatory speeches, mounted on the barrel. Ten thousand people were present.

AMERICAN CONSUL INSULTED—PROGRESS OF THE SPANISH REVOLT ON THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC.

Correspondence of the New-York Daily Times.

ST. DOMINGO CITY, Wednesday, Oct. 15, 1856.

On the night of the 11th of October, a mob, instigated by Mr. A. M. SEGOVIA, Spanish Consul-General, assembled before the United States Consulate, for the purpose of pulling down the flag-staff and the sign, throwing stones against the eagle, and making the greatest disorder. There were also cries of "Down with the filibusters!—down with the American eagle!" The American Consul, Mr. JACOB PEREIRA, repaired to the spot for the purpose of imposing respect, but all his efforts were in vain. Not being able at that moment to obtain any assistance from the authorities, he was obliged, for the safety of his person and life, to leave the place of disorder. A greater outrage by Spaniards was never committed in any civilized country, and it shows that the Spanish Consul is determined to trample on the honor of the United States Government. He has not only compelled this Government to withdraw the treaty just made with the United States, but he is doing all in his power to break down the United States Consulate, and poison the good-natured Dominicans against Americans. In this scheme he will succeed, if some serious measures are not taken at once by the United States.

The morning after the riot, the American Consul represented the case to the Government by means of an official note, and the Mayor was immediately informed of the conduct of Mr. SEGOVIA. The Mayor then called on the American Consul, to offer him protection, and a file of soldiers, to impose that respect which was due to the United States Consulate. This was, however, refused by Mr. PEREIRA, who stated that the American flag needed no guard to cause it to be respected, and that he was then prepared to meet any mob that might appear. But all disturbance was soon quelled. Mr. SEGOVIA took fright and remained at home.

This is not all. SEGOVIA has turned SANTA ANA, MOZA, and the ALFAUS out of the Government. He has sent the American Minister, DELMONTE, his passport, and for aught we know, will soon have a Spanish army to meet the Americans, when they demand satisfaction for withdrawing their treaty. Can the United States Government allow this SEGOVIA to abuse their rights and break down the Dominican Republic, or will the American people consent to it, are questions we want answered. The Dominicans are crying out for assistance every day, but not even a vessel of war is to be seen in the Roads of St. Domingo.

A DOMINICAN.

Personal.

The late Hon. SAMUEL HOAR was married to Miss SHERMAN, daughter of the celebrated ROGER SHERMAN. Two of his sons, Judge E. R. HOAR and GEORGE F. HOAR, Esq., are among the rising men of the State, the former having already an established position. Mr. G. F. HOAR was yesterday elected Senator in Worcester County.

The Indianapolis Journal of Nov. 5, says: "Col. THOMAS H. BENTON passed through this city on Saturday, on his road to St. Louis. He looked as hearty and vigorous at three score and ten as many men do at forty. Hon. FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of St. Louis, who was still in our city, called upon him. Mr. BENTON has been closely engaged upon his new work, and is full of it. He seemed to care very little about the political contest now raging. Mr. BLAIR left on Saturday for Louisville."

The Charleston Mercury announces the death, on the 5st instant, of Rev. JULIUS W. BURGES, Assistant Pastor of Grace Church, in that city. Mr. BURGES, who was the son of a distinguished politician of South Carolina, was graduated at Harvard College, in the class of 1849. He was a young man of decided talent and of unusual virtues, and had begun his career in the ministry with the highest prospects of usefulness. Only a few weeks ago he officiated at the funeral of his intimate friend, W. R. TAYLOR, of the Mercury, the victim of the recent duel with Mr. MACRAE. Mr. BURGES died of the yellow fever, contracted at Beaufort, after an illness of seven hours.

THOMAS DOWNE, the venerable and eccentric leather-dresser of Cambridge, Mass., died on the forenoon of Nov. 4. The donation of his valuable library to the Massachusetts Historical Society was announced a few months since, on which occasion Mr. WINTHROP and Mr. EVERETT made fitting mention of the generous donor.

☞ Rev. J. H. BROUT, formerly of Troy, N. Y., has become associated with Rev. J. R. BRATTON in the editorship of the Daily Evening Post and the Pacific of San Francisco.

☞ The steamboat James Newton, which left Albany on Thursday evening for this City, broke her piston-rod between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday morning, when a little this side of Caldwell's, and for a time some excitement prevailed. After waiting about an hour the Commodore from Troy came along and took the Newton in tow, and both boats reached the City at 11 o'clock yesterday.

HENRY HARRISON—W. F. HARRISON, the former of whom was for the Lake shore of Canada, has been appointed Secretary of the Minnesota Central Railroad Company for building through its property.

NEW-YORK CITY.

We passed a couple of hours in the Male and Female Evening Schools in Ludlow-street, which the Evening School Association, formed after the decline of the Public Evening School movement, keeps open during the winter.

The school which we visited is composed of pupils, of the average age of fifteen years, under the care of Miss NORTHROP. There were somewhat more attendance being much larger and more regular than was last year.

The majority of these pupils have left the Day or Evening Schools of the Institution. Several grown up girls attend for the purpose of special improvement in writing and spelling, and a few who could read at all when they entered the school have considerably bettered their progress.

The order and decorum manifested was very satisfactory in all of the classes.

The Boys' School had present, in nine classes, 267 pupils last night, under the direction of the same nine, with nine assistants—the usual attendance being considerably larger. The progress made in some of the classes was noteworthy.

The class in mechanical and architectural drawing, under the care of Mr. SWANSON, have made very good advancement, especially in mechanical drafting. Some of the standing exhibited a fair degree of taste and skill.

The debating club which was organized last year has been kept up during the Summer, and the advancement made by the members in the art of speaking what they think has been remarkable. They debate in the large hall of the school every Friday evening, and we had the pleasure of listening to Mr. CUMMINGHAM'S declamation during the evening.

Master WILLIAM DEBAW, a member of the 4th class, and of the debating club, has produced some very fine models in clay, and evinces a high degree of artistic talent. He is an apprentice in Mr. BONNARD'S marble-yard, No. 100 Sixth-avenue.

The organization of this school is very complete and systematic.

Mechanics' Institute.

At a meeting held last evening at the rooms of the Institute, Nos. 19 and 20 Tryon-row, there was organized a Society for the improvement and amusement of young men, styled the Mechanics' Literary Society of the Mechanics' Institute. The following gentlemen were elected officers: Rev. WARREN BOSTON, President; ROBERT A. TOUT, Vice-President; WINSLOW J. HOWARD, Secretary and Treasurer. The Society will meet every Wednesday evening. The Society has a fine library, lectures and conversation rooms and gymnasium for the improvement of physical culture. The evening classes in the various branches of drawing, mathematics, music, &c., are now open.

☞ The School Commissioners elected from the Ninth Ward is not E. WILLIAMSON, but ROBERT HAYMAN. The vote stood, WILLIAMSON, 1,839; HAYMAN, 1,946.

☞ THOMAS MCELRONE, Democrat, is elected Alderman in the Nineteenth Ward, and not R. A. MAYNARD, American, as has been published.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Before Hon. Recorder Hall.

Yesterday during the trial of an indictment for grand larceny, the District Attorney complained to the Court and requested the Monster of some policemen to prevent certain parties from improperly interfering with the Grand Jury. He stated that such interference had been attempted, in part successfully, and it was necessary to invoke the power of the Court. The Recorder immediately ordered that the requisite force should be sent.

The Irishman, Jas. Lynch, charged with stabbing John Lynch, charged with stabbing a policeman, was convicted and sentenced by the State Prison for two years.

Johann Kohler was sent to the Penitentiary for stealing a watch and chain from Mr. David Thomson. The evidence was clear. Verdict of Guilty. Sentence reserved.

Patrick Cosgrove charged with highway robbery, was acquitted, but as there were other charges against him he was remanded into custody.

LONG ISLAND.

☞ Mr. N. J. F. PALMER, American, and Jeremiah PALMER, Democrat, were elected in the Seventh Ward, Brooklyn, as Aldermen.

Fires in Brooklyn—Incendiarism.

At a little before 2 o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in store No. 474 Columbia-street, corner of Summit, South Brooklyn, occupied as a liquor and saloon by ANTHONY GRAEF. The fire was speedily extinguished. Mr. GRAEF'S loss is quite trifling, which is covered by insurance in the Hamilton Insurance Company. The damage to the building, which is owned by BENJAMIN BENNET, is about $200, covered by insurance. WILLIAM CLAYTON, who occupies a frame store adjoining, met with a loss of $75, principally from water.

About 5 o'clock, yesterday morning, a fire broke out in store No. 3 Ferry-place, near Sackett-street, which was entirely destroyed, and considerable damage was done by fire to the upper stories of the two buildings next adjoining, corner of Sackett and 3d of the former stories were thoroughly drenched with water. No. 3, where the fire originated, was occupied by CHARLES MCGRAW as a liquor store and grocery. His loss is about $1,200, insured for $600 in the Atlantic Insurance Company.

The upper stories were occupied by several families. WM. MURRAY and MRS. GRAW, who occupied most of their furniture, as a damaged state, are insured once. No. 2 Ferry-place was occupied as a grocery by HENRY HORNEMAN, who saved his goods from the fire but they were much damaged by water. The upper stories were occupied by C. H. FREEMAN, boatman, C. A. FERNANDO and a widow lady. Most of the furniture saved in a damaged state from water—no insurance.

The buildings are three-story brick, and owned by AARON BLAKE, whose loss is estimated at $1,000, covered by insurance.

The Worthington Pump on board the ferry boat Wallabout, under the management of Mr. BENJAMIN WHITE, pilot, rendered efficient assistance, and undoubtedly saved the block from destruction.

While proceeding to the first fire, a man named JAMES HOPPER was run over by Hopper Bros.' express wagon, on Court-street, and had one of his legs badly broken.

The Shooting Affray in South Brooklyn.

RELEASE OF THE ACCUSED PARTIES.

DANIEL SHERIDAN and PATRICK MCMANEMAN, arrested on Tuesday last for beating and shooting PATRICK DUNCH the night previous on Van Brunt-street, and who next day were discharged from custody, were rearrested yesterday and passed Court to await the result of the injuries inflicted upon DUNCH, who is at present in a very critical state, but owing to but a small chance for his recovery. His ball struck his left nose the nose, and lodged in the forehead, passing upward, lodged in the brain, where it remains.

THOMAS BRADY was severely beaten on the night of the above transactions, and is supposed by the same parties. He is yet confined to his house.

The Mysterious Death in Kings County Hospital.—The man who died in the Hospital on Thursday morning last, and whose name was at the time unknown, was picked up Monday night on the corner of Fulton and Classon-avenues, Brooklyn, insensible from injuries received, it is supposed, from a fall while intoxicated. His name was JAMES O'CONNOR.

The Massachusetts Electoral in the Mexican War—Col. Haskell Horrocking.

From the Boston Post.

Sometime since the New-York Herald published a report of a speech made by Hon. R. B. RHETT, of South Carolina, at Lynchburg, Va., in which he referred to one and a distinguished citizen of Massachusetts, who, he said, had been in the habit of boasting that he had refused to be by a friend, and, during that war, Harrison Gray Otis, of Boston, was the only Massachusetts Electoral who refused to vote for the nomination of Gen. Scott. Mr. RHETT was in error in this statement, as you were the first to point out. Otis was not an Elector, as you were the first to point out.

It will give me pleasure, as far as I can, to correct any injustice I may have done you or your friends, particularly was unintentional. However, waiving my hate and hostility to the Black Republicans of Massachusetts may be I would not, do not, even from their midst, if they have any, and would certainly regret committing any injustice through prejudice, against the gentlemen of the Democratic party. If you will refer to my letter of the 29th ult., you will find that I there stated that Mr. RHETT had been misrepresented, and that I had written to him for the purpose of ascertaining whether he had been correctly reported. I have received from him a reply, and will, with your permission, publish the substance of it for the satisfaction of the friends of the gentlemen from his reply; and oblige, yours truly, E. H. HASKELL.

It is proper to say that I have not seen the speech in the Herald in which the report of the speech was published, but I have seen it in the Richmond Enquirer, copied from the Herald. It is literally full of inaccuracies, but I believe all the statements contained in it were substantially as I have given. At least the passage you refer to, in connection with the remarks with the simple substitution of Quincy for Otis, is antipodes. If your recollect was not

NEWSPAPERS TAXATION Nov. 4, 1856.

Editor Boston Journal.

There is nothing like novelty, now-a-days. Mr. Editor, and your readers may like to receive a "waif," written on a barrel of apples, by one who is glad to rest, after having wheeled the barrow, with a load of apples there, ten miles over a rough road. White teeth, perfumed breath, and beautiful complexion, can be secured by using the balm of a Thousand Flowers. Beware of counterfeits. The immense success of the balm has brought out hosts of counterfeits and impostors. Be sure each bottle has the signature of Sarah A. Richardson & Co., Franklin-square, New-York. For sale by all druggists.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Their searching and curative powers render them invaluable to those who are exposed to the baneful influences of the climate, and especially those who suffer from liver and stomach complaints. Any one of dyspepsia will readily yield to their wonderful influence. Sold at the manufactories, 80 Maiden-lane, New-York, and 244 Strand, London, and by all druggists throughout the civilized world at 25 cents, 62½ cents, and $1 per box.

A New Fragrance—We have always considered the best Persian Odorine better as the most moderate and proper luxury for our toilet table, but the other day we were surprised by using Allaire's Extract of Jessamine Bouquet & Co., Tremont-street, Boston. We yield to the palm; the effect is salutary, and the perfume is exquisite; after the application we feel as though in paradise. We predict a large sale and pretty soon a run upon it. Sold by all druggists and perfumers.
